Press Observers To Watch Juntas

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 19 (AP) — Watchdog committees on press freedom will be sent by the Inter-American Press Association to Peru and Panama, where military junta leaders have seized control.

At the closing session of its 24th annual assembly Friday, the IAPA also approved a document criticizing press restrictions in Cuba. It said Cuba and Haiti are the only two countries where the press is totally controlled. Some restrictions exist in Uruguay, Honduras and Nicaragua, it added.
